ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

- Lencia distributing CDC yoghurts and butters to Independent Supermarkets throughout Victoria and New South Wales Riverina

Australian Dairy Farms Group (“AHF” or “Group”) is pleased to advise that Lencia Fruit Juices Pty Ltd have commenced distribution of Camperdown Dairy yoghurts and butters to independent supermarkets and grocery stores throughout Victoria and the NSW Riverina. We are also very pleased with the market acceptance with over 100 stores placing Camperdown Dairy products on range in the first 4 weeks.

AHF Group CEO, Peter Skene said “We have been evaluating options to best access the independent supermarket channel (for yoghurt and butters) for several months, and are delighted to be working with Lencia’s well established and reliable distribution network.”

Founded in 1971, Lencia has long been a reliable and trusted source of unique refreshment. Lencia remains one of the few fruit juice companies not just wholly Australian owned, but also locally owned and operated.

Widely available throughout Victoria and South Western New South Wales, Lencia is Sunraysia’s oldest and most popular fruit juice.

Australian farmers produce a quality second-to-none. That is why only Australian ingredients are selected for all of Lencia’s products. Lencia shares the pride of Aussie farmers, sharing their best produce Australia wide.

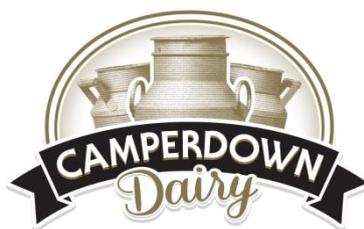

Similarly, Camperdown Dairy’s butters and yoghurts use 100% Australian ingredients, including the fruits added to the delicious fruit yoghurts.

Combining distribution of Camperdown Dairy’s high quality locally produced yoghurts and butters with Lencia’s juices is a logical and hopefully rewarding outcome for both AHF and Lencia. The pictures in this announcement are images of some of the Camperdown Dairy products being distributed by Lencia. Investors in AHF should keep a lookout for these products in one of the independent stores near you.

Camperdown Dairy management continues to seek out opportunities for increasing distribution and product awareness with distributors and retailers and some very positive results are being achieved with this distribution agreement with Lencia being just one of several being progressed.

Yours faithfully
